

John F. Kennedy University's
Academic Support Center

Helping you hone
your writing, reading and critical thinking skills

One-on-one Sessions with a Writing Instructor

Appointments available Monday through Saturday

- Come in with a draft for feedback on its strengths and weaknesses, along with suggestions for revision.
- Come in without a draft for a guided brainstorming session.
- Come in without a clue for help getting started.

before

Bi-Annual Skills Review

All-day workshops that review the most essential skills needed for academic success

- Getting the Most Out of your Reading
- The Process of Writing
- Critical Thinking and Writing

Quarterly Workshops

Interactive exercises, effective tools and strategies on such topics as

- Avoiding Plagiarism/Using APA
- The Research Paper
- Time Management

“Housecalls” to Classes and Specialized Group Sessions

Academic Support Center instructors are available for class visits, tailoring specialized presentations to meet the needs of a course. We also facilitate group sessions where students can work on their assignments together outside of class.

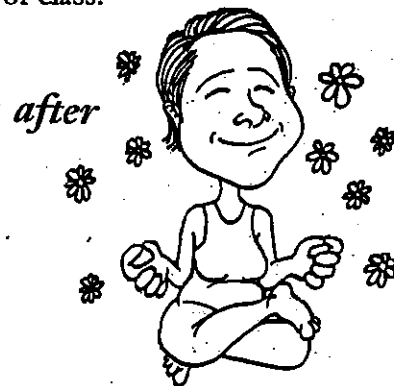

All Services are Free to enrolled JFKU Students

Academic Support Center

Pleasant Hill & Berkeley Campus: 925.969.3530

Campbell Campus: 408.874.7792

Email address: asc@jfkku.edu

after