

JOHN F. KENNEDY UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT BSBA Scholarship Fund

The School of Management BSBA Scholarship Fund is now open to new applicants to the bachelor completion program in Business Administration. Each scholarship is for $3,000 that will be disbursed in separate amounts of $1,000 each at intervals along completion of the program: when first enrolled, approximately midway through the program, and during the final quarter. Applicants must be registered for a minimum of 6 units by September 14, 2009 to be eligible for the scholarship.

Your submission packet should contain the following:

1. Completed School of Management BSBA Scholarship Application form attached.
2. A one paragraph, typed statement addressing the following two questions:
 - a. How have you demonstrated leadership and participation in school or community activities or your work experience?
 - b. How would this scholarship help you with your long-term goals and aspirations?

Terms and Conditions:

1. All new applicants to the BSBA program in the School of Management who are accepted and register for a minimum of 6 units by September 14, 2009, are eligible for consideration for the scholarship. Formerly enrolled students must not have been enrolled for at least three (3) quarters and be re-applying for admission to BSBA without having taken a leave of absence. Continuously enrolled students transferring internally from other JFK University programs are not eligible.
2. Scholarships may not be deferred or applied to other degree programs.
3. Recipients will be notified in writing of their award by the Financial Aid Office after selection by the School of Management.
4. Scholarship recipients must:
 - a. Be continuously enrolled except with permission of the chair.
 - b. Must be making Satisfactory Academic Progress at time of each disbursement.
5. Failure to meet the standards and terms of the fellow will result in retraction of the scholarship.

For further information or questions about applying for a scholarship, contact JFK University Office of Financial Aid at 925.969.3385 or finaid@jfkku.edu.
