

JOHN F. KENNEDY UNIVERSITY URBAN TEACHER SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Urban Teacher Scholarship program offers $7,500 scholarships for individuals who have experience in urban settings and plan to teach in an urban school. Scholarship recipients receive tuition assistance to be used during the student teaching portion of their training which occurs during the second/third quarter in the program.

Individuals from ethnic groups that are traditionally under-represented in K-12 teaching programs are encouraged to apply.

Your submission packet should contain the following:

1. A completed Urban Teacher Scholarship Application form, which is attached.
2. A copy of your resume.
3. A one-page, typed statement addressing the following two questions:
 - a. How has your experience in urban settings shaped your decision to pursue a career in education?
 - b. Why would teaching in an urban school be of particular interest to you?

For questions about applying for a scholarship, please contact the JFK University Office of Financial Aid at 925.969.3385 or email finaid@jfk.edu.

Send your scholarship application packet to:
