Nondegree Applicants

Individuals interested in taking courses for credit but not interested in pursuing a degree should apply for admission as nondegree students by submitting applications for admission with the appropriate nonrefundable application fee. Nondegree applicants are not required to submit transcripts or personal statements.

Personal Statement Information

Your personal statement should be 5-10 pages. We recommend that you begin the process of writing this statement by taking some time to reflect on who and where you are at this moment in your life, including experiences that have shaped you. Areas to cover are:

- How does the field of health education fit with who you are and your life or career aspirations?
- What significant experiences or events in your life journey contribute to your readiness for graduate study in health education?
- What brought you to apply to this program?
- What do you foresee your future work to be? And, how will this degree support that?

John F. Kennedy University reserves the right to verify the authenticity of a given document through contact with the issuing source. Documentation submitted in support of an application becomes the property of the University and will not be returned. Photocopies of documents submitted to support an application will not be given to applicants, students or outside parties.

John F. Kennedy University does not discriminate, in admissions or in access to programs, against qualified individuals on the basis of race, color, height, weight, national origin, religion, age, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, veteran status, or disability. Admissions decisions are made independent of need for financial aid.
